

Important Dates for the Competition Year - Contact Information

September 1st	American Junior Academy of Science application letters due to FJAS coordinator - letters were given to the eligible students at the past FJAS competition.
October 1st	Siemens - Westinghouse Science competition submissions due – www.siemens-foundation.org
mid-October	Nomination letters due for Florida Junior Science, Engineering & Humanities Symposium - www.cpet.ufl.edu
Mid-November	Intel Science Talent Search competition submissions due - Seniors only – www.sciserv.org
December 31st	FJAS dues deadline for students at regular dues levels: $5 for student members of chapters or web-members or $10 for individual members receiving all mailings
Mid-January	DuPont Challenge Essay Contest submissions due -
January 31st	FJAS paper submission for both FJAS and Talent Search – See newsletter for guidelines - Preferred method is by email - Papers received later may not be considered - Late memberships are accepted with the papers - $10 for web membership early February	Junior Science, Engineering & Humanities Symposium at University of Florida - www.cpet.ufl.edu
mid-February	American Junior Academy of Science meeting with AAAS - www.amjas.org mid-March	FJAS and Florida Science Talent Search - see newsletter for schedule mid-April	State Science & Engineering Fair of Florida - www.floridassef.net mid-May	International Science & Engineering Fair - www.sciserv.org
early June	Discovery Channel Young Scientist Challenge - Grades 5-8 – www.sciserv.org