

Important Dates for the Competition Year - Contact Information

- September 1st American Junior Academy of Science application letters due to FJAS coordinator - letters were given to the eligible students at the past FJAS competition.
- Early October Siemens - Westinghouse Science competition submissions due - www.siemens-foundation.org
- Mid-October Nomination letters due for Florida Junior Science, Engineering & Humanities Symposium - www.cpet.ufl.edu
- Mid-November Intel Science Talent Search competition submissions due - Seniors only - www.societyforscience.org - look under Science Education Programs
- December 31st FJAS dues deadline for students at regular dues levels: $5 for student members of chapters or web-members or $10 for individual members receiving all mailings
- Late-January DuPont Challenge Essay Contest submissions due - www.thechallenge.dupont.com
- January 31st FJAS paper submission - See newsletter for guidelines - Preferred method is by email - Papers received later may not be considered - Late memberships are accepted with the papers - $10 for web membership
- Early February Junior Science, Engineering & Humanities Symposium at University of Florida - www.cpet.ufl.edu
- Mid-February American Junior Academy of Science meeting with AAAS - www.amjas.org
- Mid-March FJAS - see newsletter for schedule - posted online
- Late March State Science & Engineering Fair of Florida - www.floridassef.net
- Mid-May International Science & Engineering Fair - www.societyforscience.org - look under Science Education Programs